Southwark Five Defeats Central, 41-23, and Now Cannot Be Beaten Out for Dutch Trophy

IG GAMES TONIGHT

By PAUL PREP S all over but the coronation.

South Philadelphia High repeated in The Interscholastic Baskethall League, spinning the 1919-20 cage crown, just at this school's five did in the 1918-19 campaign, with the only and distinct difference that this year's title isn't tainted. It will be remembered that last season the championship had to be forfeited because the Southwarkites had used an ineligible player. As a result Central High and West Philly played a post season game, with the Speedboys eventually annexing the laurels.

This season's title was clinched by South Philly yesterday following its victory over Central High in the forgym, the final score being 41 to 23. But one more series of matches are scheduled and even though West Philly happens to win from the Downtowners next Tuesday afternoon, the latter will next Tuesday atternoon, the latter will still hold the better percentage. On Wednesday of next week, South Philly will be in possession of the Dutch Com-nany trophy, it being relinquished by

It is worth mentioning that while Southern almost doubled the score in score in the Central game yesterday, the Crimson High would have a tendency to drop and Gold basketballers gave the South St. Joe from the top of the league into during the first half, which ended against the league leaders, 12-18 The Mirrors a certain winner over La Salvette as appeared to have reinvarient appeared to have rejuvenated, had the Southerners bewildered and really out played the prospective champions.

South Philly Rallies

However, an entirely different tune was played in the second half. As against Northeast, the South Phillyians spurted, got going like a machine, and it was only a few minutes after the start of the latter half that shots by Leopold Green and Silver put the Southwark count ahead of that of Central. And they kept on going—going so fast that Central was on the defensive through the last twenty minutes, benig able to score only 5 points, while the home quintet netted 29.

Captain Leopold was the leading scorer of the afternoon. 'Lee' made good three shots from afield and dropped good three shots from abeld and dropped in 13 out of a possible 16 from the 15-foot line. Green led in field goals with 4, other scorers being Weinstein, 3; Sil-ver, 2; Eddie Dessen, 2; Fischer, 2; Lazar, 3; Thornton, 2, and Kaufman, 2. Thornton also made 5 out of 15 fout Another big game at St. Joe's gyn-
